Hi all,

I have attached three documents for your review:

1. An updated redline of the CD Mod
2. A clean copy of the updated CD Mod
3. A “cliffs notes” version of the redline that we all reviewed together

The updated CD redline reflects our team discussions over the past few weeks. It also has updated automatic paragraph cross-references, which should make our lives easier moving forward. As a reminder, the redline shows changes between the clean copy of the modification and the original filed Partial Consent Decree. I deleted DOJ/team comments that we have resolved. You'll still see a handful of comments from me, either because we are still working to resolve the comment, or because a new question popped up while I was updating this version. Any new comment or update should be in bolded text.
